

Tennis Leader Courses at Caversham LTC

Tennis Leaders Course for 13yrs+

Your first step towards a career in tennis or sport is Tennis Leaders. Even if you don't think you want to work in sport, becoming a Tennis Leader will provide you with lots of skills, experience and knowledge that will help you when applying for courses, universities and even on your CV when you apply for your first job.

The GDTennis Leaders Course provides practical and real work experience for anyone interested in sports coaching and childcare. The programme incorporates the LTA Tennis Leaders Award as part of the programme. What makes the GDTennis leaders course different from many other Clubs is the real-time experience that our leaders gain.

Becoming a Tennis Leader

Tennis Leaders is aimed at 13 years plus and the content is suitable for older juniors just starting out on the tennis career pathway through to adult volunteers looking to support their local coach, referee or club official. Through sessions assisting the coaches, guidance and development from the staff team and delivery of your own plans, you will develop the skills and confidence needed to become a leader.

We run the course alongside our tennis camps, which allows Leaders to get immediate experience and put things into practice, which is one of the best ways of learning. During this time, you will benefit from working alongside the GDTennis Coaching Team, who have years of experience working with all ages and abilities.
